LABOR'S CANDIDATES-

Ogborn, Carman, Snee

ORGANIZE TO INSURE PROPER PARTICIPATION BY THIS CITY ON COUNTY DAY

Fifty Richmond citizens, anxious to see the biggest city in the county properly participate in the Contra Costa Day ceremonies at the Exposition on April 3, heeded the meeting call issued by Mayor Garrard, chairman of the local committee, and were present at a gathering in the City Hall last night.

To judge from the enthusiasm exhibited last night, Richmond will do its share toward making Contra Costa Day a red letter day in the history of the Exposition.

Many committee were appointed by Mayor Garrard. These committees will work hard between now and April 3 to perfect all plans for local participation. With no local fund to draw from, Richmond plans to do things, and if the rest of the county gets behind Contra Costa Day as this city is going to, it will be a bigger success than the most optimistic anticipate.

There will be another meeting of Richmond citizens, next Tuesday night. All the committeemen and committeewomen named last night by Garrard are expected to be present.

The following are the committees named for Richmond: Tickets, Messrs. Donnelly, Stiefvater, Lemoine and Summers; auto committee, Jas. P. Arnold, H. W. Mergenthal, H. A. Johnson, G. W. Cushing and John Ryan; special committee on numbering of autos, H. W. Wernse and Henry Wahl; Richmond refreshment committee, Mrs. Mergenthal, Mrs. Stanley Wright, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Garrard, Mrs. Hulin, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Fredenberg and Mrs. U. S. Abbott; reception committee, woman's clubs of Richmond and Mrs Stevens. Mrs. Lee Adams, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Staley, Miss Wilbur and Mrs. T. Kraemer; badge committee A. Trautvetter,. D. Wetmore, R. S. Richmond, Roy Rogers, D. C. Knowles and Henry Hulin; publicity, John F. Galvin, George Ryan, R. S. Richmond and Frank Hull; committee on decoration of four autos in which city officials will ride in the parade, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Dr. Ceasar, Mrs. Narbett, Mrs. Stanley Wright, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. Feich, Mrs. Mary Walsh, Miss Charlotte Trainor, Miss Hazel Whitehead, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Walter La Selle, Mrs. Charles Pulse and Mrs. Edith Huston; music committee, Reuben H. Curry, Tony De Lap, C. E. Bacon, B. A. Burnett and C. F. Brewer.

Superintendent of Schools Helms was appointed a committee of one to arrange for the participation of the school children of this city in the exercises of the day.

J. F. Brooks, Standard Oil official, was chosen a committee of one to interview the heads of all the manufactories of the city to induce them to close down their plants on April 3, give their employes a day off and declare it a legal holiday.

Secretary George Jackson has bene instructed by Mayor Garrard to write to all the fraternal organizations of the city and advise them to enter drill teams to compete for the loving cup offered by President Moore of the Exposition.

It is planned to daily decorate the autos from Richmond entering in the big parade with poppies and other wild flowers so easily obtainable right outside of hte city limits.

Chairman Trautvetter of the badge committee has stated that he will arrange to have 3000 badges for Richmond people, printed. The badges will be distributed on Contra Costa Day by the members of the badge committee.

KANGAROOS TO INVADE CITY THIS MORNING

Thirty-five Nattily Attired and Talented Australian Youths Due Here at Noon.

SUMMARY OF KANGAROO INVASION OF RICHMOND

TODAY.

12 m.—Arrive and lunch with high school students.

2 p. m.—Exhibition baseball game, Richmond vs. State Industrial school of Berkeley, First st. grounds.

6 p. m.—Supper at Colonial hotel.

8 p. m.—Entertainment and banquet at Sons of St. George lodge.

TOMORROW.

9 a. m.—Start on tour of Standard Oil and other industries.

8:15 p. m.—Vaudeville show at Lincoln auditorium.

Richmond will be invaded at noon today by a band of thirty-five talented, youthful and nattily uniformed Kangaroo, or more accurately, Australian Boy Tourists from Perth, Western Australia. They come here as the guests of the high school and the Sons of St. George lodge jointly, and plan to spend two days here.

They will leave the Santa Fe train at the Wall station, near Sixteenth street, and parade to the high school, where they will be entertained at a sumptuous luncheon in the gymnasium. The luncheon will be followed by speeches, nad music by the big brass band of the Australians.

Shortly before 3 o'clock the school students, the Australian boys and the baseball team of the Berkeley Deaf, Dumb and Blind school, will march down Macdonald avenue to the First street grounds, where a baseball game will be played between the local high school and the "dummies" from the College Town institution. The industrial school boys have an excellent team and the game should be a novel and interesting exhibition.

This evening the Australians will dine at the Colonial Hotel, and tonight they will be guests at an entertainment and banquet given by the Sons of St. George lodge in A. O. U. W. Hall. All local Englishmen and women, high school hosts to one or more Australian boy, and their girl friends, and members of the St. George lodge are invited to attend.

Tomorrow morning the Australian boys will start on a tour of the industrial centers of the city, and will be present at a luncheon in their honor at Winehaven at noon. Tomorrow night they will give their novel and unique vaudeville show in the Lincoln auditorium.

Friday morning they leave on their way to Southern California.

OFFICIALS WILL PROBE DISPUTE

Councilmen to Go Over Land That Caused Dispute Between Big Contractors.

This morning at 9 o'clock the members of the city council will meet and in company with City Attorney D. J. Hall and the city's engineers, will go over the land near the site of the municipal wharf, which Healy & Tibbitts nad Moffett & Meade, two big contracting firms, both doing city work, are having a dispute over.

Moffett & Meade have ordered the San Francisco Bridge Company, working on a sub-contract for the Healy-Tibbitts Company, to desist laying pipe over a fill they have just completed. Moffett & Meade claimed their tools have been used by the other company, and that if laying of pipe and using of tools does not stop, there will be court action.

Healy & Tibbitts contend they need room in which to construct a temporary wharf, a toolhouse and telephone booth, and one of the members of the firm stated to the council Monday night that he was not aware of the fact that Moffett & Meade controlled the entire Richmond water-front.

In order to settle the dispute and determine the rights of the warring companies, the council will go over the grounds.

At tonight's session of the council, City Attorney Hall, who on Monday attended a meeting of the California League of Municipalities, held in Sacramento, will report on the deliberations of the body on the matters in which htis city is interested.

Representatives of the Sacramento-Stockton Steamship Company, which proposes to establish a regular ferry service between Richmond and San Francisco on the completion of the municipal wharf, will be in attendance at the session, and will present their plans in detail to the council.

AT ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING UNION MEN ENDORSE CANDIDATES

WORKERS, UNITED, ARE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

J. B. Ogborn, T. O. Carman and James Snee—those are the three candidates for the city council unanimously endorsed at the labor mass meeting last night.

Solidarity was the key note of the meeting, which was one of the most enthusiastic ever held by the unions in Richmond.

The nominations were unanimous.

NO DISSENSION.

Throughout the meeting there was not one word of dissension. The hall was crowded and the attendance was thoroughly representative of the labor movement in Richmond.

There was much enthusiasm—enthusiasm born of confidence in victory. The meeting demonstrated beyond argument that organized labor is undivided and that it will stand to a man behind the three candidates and WILL CARRY THEM TO VICTORY in the coming election.

TWO UNION MEMBERS.

Two of the men are members of unions, both of them prominent in the labor movement. The other, Ogborn, while not a member of a union, has demonstrated time and again, in and out of public life, that he is with the workers always.

EACH HAD DECIDED.

The endorsement of James Snee, T. O. Carman and J. B. Ogborn was unanimous in the best sense of the word. There was no steamroller at the meeting. Each that attended had decided the question in his own mind, had decided that Snee, Carman and Ogborn would best represent the interests of the workers and Richmond.

SNEE'S RECORD.

James Snee served six years as councilman in Wilkesbarre, Pa., leaving office in 1903. He is thoroughly experienced in municipal affairs and his record is clean. He is a leading figure in the Clerks' Union and one of the most popular men in the city.

T. O. Carman is also experienced in civic affairs, having served as a city commissioner in Rawhide, Nev., in 1907. During his term of office, after the great fire in that city, he was put in charge of the distribution of the thousands of dollars' worth of supplies for those that had been burned out.

ORGANIZED UNION.

Carman organized the Potters' Union in Richmond. He has been president of the union for three terms. He is a delegate from the Central Labor Council to the Social Service Bureau and has been prominent in the work of helping the bureau efficiently co-operate with the unions in the work of aiding the poverty-stricken in this city. He joined the Potters' Union in 1888 and for years has been prominent in the trades union movement.

OGBORN GETS OVATION.

The mention of J. B. Ogborn's name brought an ovation. The union men have not forgotten the way he played fair with them during his term of public office. He is known by everyone in Richmond and is known as a man that will give the people an absolutely square deal.

KENNEDY CALLS TO ORDER.

The meeting, which was held in Polytechnic Hall, was called to order by James Kennedy. The mass meeting committee recommended that J. W. Smiley be elected chairman. The recommendation was concurred in. R. W. Seamans was appointed secretary and F. W. Heckman sergeant at arms.

Before leaving the chair Kennedy briefly addressed the meeting, outlining the work done by the committee and stated the recommendation of the committee that the question, "Shall non-trades unionists be considered?" be put to the meeting.

QUESTION CARRIED.

It was moved, seconded and carried that non-unionists be considered.

NOMINATIONS OPENED.

J. B. Ogborn was then placed in nomination by William Pennington. F. W. Heckman seconded the nomination.

T. O. Carman was next placed in nomination by E. G. Wisdom, president of the Carpenters' Union and president of the executive board of the Building Trades Council.

James Snee was placed in nomination by R. H. Cunningham, secretary of the Clerks' Union. Richard Williams seconded the nomination.

NOMINATIONS CLOSED.

Further nominations were then called for. No further names were put up and the nominations were closed.

The three candidates were asked if they would stand by the workers and all answered in the affirmative.

By a rising vote they were endorsed. Every man in the room voted.

LANE TALKS.

Councilman Lane, representing the city council, addressed the meeting, requesting organized labor to do its part in the celebration of Contra Costa Day, April 3.

Speeches were made by Snee and Carman, outlining their policy and thanking the men for their endorsement. Snee pleased the crowd tremendously by illustrating his arguments with a number of stories that brought a good deal of laughter. F. W. Heckman, Charles Washburn, William Pennington also made speeches.

FORCEFUL ADDRESS.

A forceful address was made by James Kennedy.

The speakers following the candidates declared that a better choice could not have been made. They said that Carman, Snee and Ogborn would stand by the people and work for the best interests of the workers and for Richmond.

CAMPAIGN TO START.

A campaign committee will be selected by the candidates and the committee from the two union councils in the near future. A campaign, which for enthusiasm and results will outrank anything ever seen in Richmond will be started immediately.

Michael Iverson told the meeting that the Socialist party would support the labor candidates.

JAMES SNEE.
J. B. OGBORN.
T. O. CARMAN.

They are the men that are going to be elected to the city council.

F. JAMES HAS SERIOUS OPERATION

"TWILIGHT SLEEP" METHOD USED

Fred James, well known Pullman employe, who has been sick for several weeks, submitted to a serious operation at the Craven hospital yesterday, when a portion of a rib on his right side was removed, allowing the operating physicians to tap an abscess in the right lung. Although his condition is very critical, he has a chance for recovery.

The operating physicians were Dr. Scroggs, Dr. U. S. Abbott and Dr. March.

The abscess on the lung is the result of an attack of pleural pneumonia that has confined James to his bed for seven weeks. Dr. Scroggs stated his patient would not be about again for many weeks.

During the time that the wound made by the removal of the rib is healing, gauze and cotton has been inserted.

James was so weak that the attending physicians did not attempt to administer an anaesthetic to him, as it was doubtful if he could have survived it. "Twilight Sleep," a new medical departure, which has been tried but very few times in Richmond, was used on James with success.

CEMENT TRUST LOBBY IS MOST HOSPITABLE ORGANIZATION

SACRAMENTO, March 23.—The cement trust lobby is continuing to maintain its reputation as the most hospitable organization in any way connected with the present session of the Legislature.

A very pleasant feature of the recent junket trip of the lawmakers to the Panama-Pacific Exposition was a dinner party at Old Faithful Inn last Saturday evening, with "Mine" Host McFarland of the Riverside Portland Cement Company, who has labored long and faithfully against the cement container bill, at the head of the table. Among the diners were Assemblyman Chamberlin, Bartlett and Scott of Los Angeles, Boyce of Monterey and Wills of Imperial county.

The cement container bill is persistently refusing to give up the ghost. Despite its defeat in the Assembly last week, Senator Flaherty announces that he will bring it to a vote in the Senate immediately, and Assemblyman McDonald, its sponsor in the lower house, declares that he is hopeful that enough legislators will change their votes when it comes up for reconsideration there to bring about its passage.

YOUNGER SET PLANS DANSANT FOR APRIL 9

Ten of Richmond's younger social set have made plans for a dancing party to be held in the auditorium of the Richmond clubhouse on Friday night, April 9. Invitations to 150 have already been sent out. It is planned to use a color scheme of yellow and green in the decoration of the auditorium. The hostesses are Misses Alma Brasch, Mary Brown, Frances Liersch, Idele Whitehead, Angie Bradley, Georgella Lowry, Louise McLaughlin, Hattie Logan, May Curry and Hazel Whitehead.

R. C. TAYLOR DANGEROUSLY ILL IN S. F.

R. C. Taylor, well known employe of the local Santa Fe office, is dangerously ill in the Morton hospital in San Francisco. Taylor is suffering from stomach trouble. He has been confined to the hospital since March 1. It will be several weeks, if he recovers, before he will be able to resume his duties with the railroad company. Prior to the time he was removed to the hospital, Taylor had been in ill health for some time.

NATIVES COMPLETE MASQUERADE PLANS

All plans for the mask ball of the local order of Native Sons, to be held in Moose Hall tonight, have been completed by R. W. Thrower, A. F. Rice and J. L. Flynn, the committee in charge. The ball will be one of the most elaborate affairs ever given under the auspices of the Native Sons. The public is invited to attend. Music will be furnished by Swartz' orchestra, and refreshments will be served during the evening.

PRAETORIANS ELECT HEADS

Officers to serve for the ensuing terms were elected at a regular meeting of the Modern Order of Praetorians, held last night at the home of F. E. Klaver at 147 Eleventh street, as follows: P. S. A., F. E. Klaver; S. A., D. F. Stratton; S. T., J. K. Floyd; J. T., D. A. Brown; attorney, Fred Lambert; recorder, Nellie Klaver; soothsayer, Anna Largent; first centurion, Irene Mullen; second centurion, Mary Magnus; legion, Madaline Klaver; sentinel, Joise Perez; Praetorian queen, Margaret McHale; musician, Eleanor Schwartz.

F. E. Klaver and D. F. Stratton were elected delegates to attend the State Senate of the Praetorians, which will convene in San Francisco on April 21-22.

At last night's session twelve new candidates were inducted into the order, and the names of four candidates balloted on.

During the evening the host and hostess served refreshments.

BANK OWNERSHIP TO CHANGE, IS RUMOR

Rumor, that has been in circulation for several days, has it that the Berkeley National Bank, the stock control of which is vested in W. K. Cole, who is heavily interested in the Bank of Richmond, is to be taken over by the Oakland Bank of Savings. A story to that effect was printed in yesterday's Examiner.

ELKS INITIATE 75 VISITORS

August W. Naas was initiated into the Elks at a big meeting last night, which was attended by 75 members of the Oakland herd. The Oakland drill team put on the initiatory work.

Following the initiation a banquet was served.

Next Saturday night will be ladies' night. The exposition commissioner from Washington will deliver a lecture on salmon culture, lumber and apple growing in his state. The talk will be illustrated by moving pictures.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Sadie Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gorham, and one of Richmond's most popular belles, is to become the bride of George Kerrigan, Santa Fé employe, at a ceremony to be performed in this city during the coming month. The news of the engagement of the couple does not come as a surprise to many of their friends, who have had suspicions for some time.

Miss Gorman for several years past has taken an active part in the affairs of the younger social set of the city. The groom-to-be is well known locally. He is a member of the Richmond Lodge of Elks.

CLUB DINNER DATE CHANGED

This afternoon a cake demonstration will be given by Mrs. Ena Evans at the Richmond Club. This demonstration is open to the public and is very helpful and interesting. Everyone is invited. Every lady attending will have a chance to win the cake which Mrs. Evans will bake.

The supper planned to be held Saturday will be held tomorrow. The dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. Mrs. Evans will be in charge. The change was necessary because of the change in Mrs. Evans' plans.

LABOR WILL WIN.

The organized labor vote is unbeatable, if it is undivided. There is no indication now that it will be divided at the coming municipal election.

If every member of the Richmond unions votes for his own best interests, the result will be a foregone conclusion.

Every effort will be made by the opposition—the "gang"—to divide the labor vote.

For a city as strongly union as Richmond is it has had some weird councils. Councils that sneered at the rights of the workers, councils that have absolutely disregarded the right of local men to work on city jobs.

Strong influences will fight the labor candidates. There will be plenty of money with the opposition.

The proposed anti-picketing law of Martinez, cooked up in Richmond, is one of the signs of the times.

Organized labor will carry the coming election. But the rank and file of organized labor, knowing that, shouldn't rest on their oars.

The labor ticket must not only win, but win by an overwhelming majority.

THEY WOULD LIKE TO GET OUT.

The Double-Crossers' Club, consisting of legislators who promised one thing to labor and did another, initated several new members last week. There is no special honor in belonging to the club. Only men who break written promises are eligible.

The men initiated last week are already trying to prove an alibi so as to get expelled.

Thus Prohibitionist John C. Phelps of San Bernardino, before the Assembly yesterday morning, denied vehemently that he had broken a pledge to labor in voting against the cement bill. He objected most emphatically to belonging to the Double-Crossers' club.

His alibi was funny. He admitted that he had promised labor to support measures "for the protection of those engaged in the handling of cement." But he said he didn't vote for the cement bill because it only protected the stevedores, "a small percentage of the workers engaged in the industry." He made an extended speech, declaring he was making no excuses.

We concede that that is some alibi. He is still a member of the Double-Crossers' Club.

M. M. Browne, assemblyman, Tuolumne, also denied that he rightfully belonged in the same category as Senator Owens.

His alibi was almost as good as Phelps'. He admitted he had signed the pledge which organized labor requested him to sign, but explained that he didn't then know anything about the cement bill.

"I voted against the bill because it is class legislation," he said. That was his alibi.

Assemblyman W. V. Satterwhite, another new member of the Double-Crossers' Club, also made a yard of excuses. He said he was working for the good of the entire state, not just for a small portion of the people.

President Owens of the Double-Crossers' Club must smile at those poor milk and water legislators who are ashamed of having broken their word.

THE FIRST ONE.

The first move in the campaign of trickery that is to be waged to combat the labor vote was made yesterday by the Record-Herald.

Mentioning the mass meeting of labor, it said that it would be held in the Labor Temple. Naming the wrong location of the meeting was, of course, deliberate and done in the hope of lowering the attendance at the meeting.

GREAT TENOR AT MACDONOUGH

An unusually large seat sale is already in evidence for the concert appearance of Florencio Constantino, the celebrated Spanish tenor, at the Macdonough on Friday evening.

Constantino has been heard here before, only recently as the Duke in Verdi's "Rigoletto," and each time he is heard on this side of the bay he adds to his reputation as an artist. The present engagement will be made notable from the fact that the eminent star will be supported by Miss Patricia O'Conner (Mrs. Tyler Tubbs Henshaw), a local society woman, who has made a name for herself as a soprano of great ability.

30 MAN-EATING LIONS IN CIRCUS

Thirty full-grown, jungle-bred African lions—every one a born man-eater, is one of the many thrilling spectacles presented by the Al G. Barnes big 3-ring Wild Animal Circus. These animals are shown at one time in a steel-barred arena in the center of the show's mammoth tent, by Herr Loui eRoth. This is the largest group of trained lions ever successfully shown and the daring of the trainer making one fairly shiver.

Many other dangerous and highly sensational wild animal acts are presented by this show. Major Thornton works with a herd of grizzly cinnamon, Siberian, sloth, black and polar bears, Big Bill, a giant wrestling grizzly being among the lot. Mlle. Florine, a petite little woman, mingles with a large number of Persian leopards, jaguars and pumas and her ability to control the snarling beasts is very amazing. Miss Mabel Stark presents an act with Royal Bengal and Siberian tigers, the most treacherous animals known, the trainer's life being in peril every moment.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m., and the doors open at 1 and 7 p. m. A new, glittering four-band parade is presented at 10:30. The show will exhibit in Richmond Sunday, April 11.

Convict Labor Bill Delayed By Amendments

The Owens-Meek convict labor bill (A. B. 547) will be delayed two or three days on account of the amendment assault of Monday afternoon. The amendments—one prohibiting the working of convicts on bridge building or skilled work, and the other prohibiting the giving of liquor or narcotics to convicts—do not change the measure's intent in the least.

When the amendments were adopted, and the measure had received its afternoon of discussion in the chamber, it was sent to the printer and the engrossment room. It will come up next under the head of "unfinished business" in about three days, and probably will pass in the House.

The labor forces opposed the measure by the amendment route Monday.

GET A LICENSE OR GO TO JAIL

Constable J. H. Gregory has announced that after tomorrow all drivers of autos in this city who do not display the yellow and black state license plate, or who have not the plate and don't have a receipt showing that one has been ordered, will be arrested. Owners of several cars in this city neglected to get licenses at all, says Gregory.

NEW CANDIDATE FILES PAPERS

One more candidate formally launched himself into the race for councilmanic honors yesterday, when H. O. Watson, Standard Oil employe, filed his nomination papers with City Clerk Faris. Watson's petition, which was circulated by himself, had the required number of signatures and was found to be legal. He is the fifth man to come out. Those who have preceded him in announcing themselves as candidates are Councilmen Hartnett and Willis, Thomas Moore and J. G. Gerlach.

Only two more candidates will have to get into the race to insure a primary election. A primary is a certainty, inasmuch as there are at least half a dozen candidates who have not yet filed their petitions.

BARBIKAS TO BE TRIED TODAY.

Theodore Barbikas, Pullman candymaker, who was arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of battery, will have his trial in the court of Police Judge Lindsay at 10 o'clock this morning. Barbikas is now out on $30 bail.

Boquet Denies That He Will Be Candidate

Friends of John Boquet, local real estate operator, yesterday made emphatic denial of rumors that have been going the rounds to the effect that he would be a candidate for a place on the city council. Boquet's friends assert that he has stated to them that he positively will not consider entering the lists, inasmuch as his duties are many and he is not in Richmond all of the time.

SWEDE WITH IRISH NAME IS MYSTERY

Ole Eirn, a Swede, with a name that sounds like an Irish ballat title, is a mystery to the police department.

Eirn, who is one-legged, was picked up by Officer Eigenman yesterday morning when found begging on the street. When taken to the city prison he had 18 cents in his possession.

After being in the Hotel Walker for two hours, Eirn was released from custody with orders to make haste in crossing the city limits. One hour after the order had been issued, Eirn was arrested again. When picked up the second time, he was full of the brand of liquid refreshments that not only cheers, but makes walking difficult for a one-legged man.

When searched by the police 87 cents were found in his possession. How Eirn managed to get the money for his hilarious time, and how he got hold of the few extra dimes found on him are questions that are agitating members of the force.

Eirn will come into court this morning if sufficiently sober.

EDNA ASPGREN, 14, IS DEAD

Edna Marie Aspgren, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Aspgren, died at her home at 1938 Clinton avenue yesterday morning following a long illness. Thirteen years of the girl's life were spent in Richmond. She was a native of Sweden.

She leaves, besides her parents and scores of friends, two sisters, Ruth and Violet Aspgren.

The body has been removed to the Curry undertaking parlors on the west side. The funeral services will be held in the parlors Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Sunset View cemetery.

GRENNISH IS GIVEN FREEDOM

Eli Grennich, charged with assault with intent to kill on Mike Drakulich, was released from the county jail at Martinez yesterday, as a result of the failure of Drakulich to put in an appearance and press the charge against his assailant.

Grennich was accused of having stabbed Drakulich in a Standard avenue saloon on Christmas Eve following a drunken altercation. Grennich protested to the officials that he was innocent of the charge against him.

TINGSTRUM TO GET HEARING

When Jesse Tingstrum was haled into Police Judge Lindsay's court yesterday morning, the charge of child stealing placed against him was dropped on the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce. A new charge, alleging that the former tango teacher contributed to the delinquency of 16-year-old Sandella Gadbury, was sworn to. Tingstrum will have his preliminary hearing in Judge Lindsay's court tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The accused man was represented by Attorney Hannum at yesterday's proceedings.

BUREAU DIRECTORS TO MEET.

Tomorrow night the board of directors of the Social Service Bureau will meet in the Presbyterian church. The finance committee that has been working to raise funds for the work of the bureau, has met with gratifying success so far.

LADIES' AID TO HOLD TEA.

Announcement has been made that the Ladies' Aid Society of the Wesley Methodist church will hold a tea at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Stiver on Thirteenth street this afternoon.

PERSONALS

Alfred Abrahams, employe of the Fashion Store, Macdonald avenue and Seventh street, is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Miss Ella Eysenbach of Delphos, O., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 635 Sixth street.

Alfred Crew, 19-year-old nephew of Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins, is slowly recovering from the effects of the injury received in the Los Angeles apartment house fire recently. Five doctors are in attendance. A. L. Crew, father of the boy, is prostrate over the death of his wife in the same fire.

Conductor Eddlemon's 20-months-old baby fell from the back porch and struck its head on the iron handle of a baby buggy. Drs. Abbott and Carpenter dressed the wound.

Charles Stice, resident of the Yesle apartments at Seventeenth and Macdonald, yesterday submitted to an operation for a burst vein in his right limb. Dr. Hall Vestal, the operating medico, says Stice's condition is satisfactory and that he will be about again in a few days.

Fern Biggs, well known local girl, who was a sophomore at Richmond high school, has discontinued her studies at that institution and has enrolled in a stenographic course at the Richmond Polytechnic College.

Martin McNally, well known west side resident, has stated to friends that he is disposing of his property in this city and is planning to move to Fresno in the near future. He is one of the oldest residents of Richmond.

George A. Carrere, associate editor of the Martinez Standard, is suffering from a severe cold. He was unable to be at his desk on Monday.

WWN RECOMMENDATION FOR REAL ESTATE AND OTHER MEASURES

The State Commission of Immigration and Housing, of which Simon J. Lubin of Sacramento is the president, last night secured favorable recommendation of the Senate judiciary committee for three of its bills. Attorney George L. Bell argued for the measures and Lubin also spoke on one of them.

Senate bill 518 would protect the purchasers of real estate against fraud and deception by penalizing the agent who lied about the character of the land he was trying to sell.

Another measure (S. B. 518) would hold a father criminally liable for the support of an illegitimate child. At the present time he is civilly liable.

The third bill would allow the commission to translate contracts and mercantile papers for recent arrivals from foreign shores.

The judiciary committee did not want to pass on the bill which would require that all contracts with immigrants of less than two years residence be written in English and the language of the immigrant until further consideration. The bill is designed to meet such cases as that of the West Sacramento Company, agents of which induced some Slavonians to buy property across the river by making promises that were not in the contracts.

THE SPORT LOG BOOK

"SILENT BILL" BURNS SOUGHT BY MANAGER OF LOS ANGELES

"Silent Bill" Burns, former Richmond boy, who is classed among the best pitchers in the minor leagues, is being sought after by "Pop" Dillon, manager of the Los Angeles club in the Pacific Coast League. Dillon thinks if he can land the brother of the Elks' pitcher he will have a pennant winner, and a club that will make make Wolverton and Christian and some of the rest of the boys sit up nights.

Burns was the leading hurler of the Louisville cclub of the American Association last year. "Silent Bill" has a somewhat peppery temper, and he had a run-in with the management. The friction between Burns and his manager became so intense that early this season the former local man was given an unconditional release. Since last fall Bill has been hibernating on a ranch at his old home in Texas.

A dispatch from Los Angeles last night stated he was in the southern metropolis, so it is probable he and Dillon will come to terms in a few days.

Burns is one of the best ball players ever turned out on the coast. And he was developed right here in Richmond. He is a brother of Charley Burns, Luce's star heaver.

Bill has a world of smoke and some dazzling curves. His friends declare nothing but his temper has kept him from going to the big show years ago. If Dillon grabs the former Richmond pitcher, he will give the other clubs in the P. C. L. and awful tough race for pennant honors.

SUNDAY WILL BE ZAMLOCH'S LAST GAME HERE

Sunday's game which the Elks will play against the Olympic Club team of San Francisco will probably be the last in which Carl Zamloch will appear on second base for the locals for at least six months. Early next week Zamloch will leave to join the Denver club in the Western League, where he has a cinch on an infield berth again.

Zamloch was a holdout for a while, but the Denver management has acceded to his request for more money. He will report in fine shape and will be ready for the opening of the season.

Zamloch is one of the best players to be developed around the bay in years, and he has been a tower of strength to the Elks in the three games in which they have taken part this season.

Local fans will be sorry to see him go, but wish him all the success in the world.

Luce plans to bring Christianson in from center field and give him the job of guarding the keystone sack. In Sunday's game with the McDonald & Collette nine Christianson demonstrated that he can play infield just as easily as he can play the outer garden and catch. Whether he will be a permanent institution on second base is not known. Manager Luce has some plan for bolstering up the infield that he ahs not yet made public.

Luce had not yet decided who will take Christianson's place in center field.

MARTINEZ REALLY EXPECTS TO WIN A GAME

(Martinez Standard.)

It looks as if Louie Lowenberg's Independents, who are due to open the season here next Sunday, are in for an artistic trimming. A glance at the boys as they warmed up yesterday shows that McNamara is going to have one of the fastest teams in the history of the city.

Rawson and Coats, battery for the regulars, handed Wilcox, Kelly and Jackson, who appeared for the Yannigans, a defeat by a 5 to 1 score. Wilcox pitched all but the last inning and allowed but one run, Kelly being responsible for four tallies in the one inning he pitched.

It was a great little game and among those whose faces were noted were Murray, Vanni, Buchanan, Steve Messich, Groos, Coats, Rawson, Dumarte, Jackson, Wilcox and others.

The diamond is exceptionally fast and next Sunday the opener should be a hummer. McNamara will announce his lineup in a few days.

April 1—William Rathbon will lecture in auditorium of Lincoln school in the evening. Auspices of Christian Scientists of Richmond.

Rube Silva's Schwartz Tailors of Vallejo defeated the team of Bay Point Sunday afternoon. The score was 10 to 4. Bay Point is now planning on strengthening up its club.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY DUMMY OUTFIT

High school fandom is agog over the game that Cap McCann's bunch will stage on the First street grounds this afternoon. The high school nine will have as opponents the speedy aggregation of the State Deaf and Dumb school in Berkeley. The game will start when school lets out.

The dummies are regarded as one of the fastest school teams in the bay section, and the Richmond nine will have no easy time in grabbing the long end of the score. It is probable that Chet McAllister, who has shown excellent form so far this season, will start on the mound for Richmond high.

It will be somewhat of a novelty for the high school boys to be seen in action against a game of dummies, and without a doubt a large crowd of local fans and fannies will be in attendance at the diamond festivities.

SPORTING GOULASH

CITY ATTORNEY HALL, BEING A GOOD ATTORNEY, HAS A GOOD ALIBI FOR NOT SHOWING UP TO CATCH THE GILDED BALL THROWN BY MAYOR GARRARD DURING THE OPENING GAME OF THE SEASON. HALL SAYS HE WAS NOT OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED THAT HE WAS TO CATCH THE FIRST BALL. HE ADMITS HE SAW HIS NAME IN THE PAPERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE CATCHING STUNT, BUT HE AVERS HE THOUGHT IT WAS A JOKE.

* * *

Every member of the local team is warned that he must show some ability with the stick if he is to draw his weekly salary from the Elks. Manager Bill Luce said yesterday that he is going to have hitters on his ball club, if he has to go to Halifax to get them. He didn't say Halifax, but the editor censored this copy and made us substitute that word. Sir William states that Richmond fans are entitled to the very base of baseball. If they don't get it, it won't be because he hasn't tried to give it to them.

It will be several months before Martinez and Richmond tangle. Martinez must first get a reputation before McNamara can hope to get a game or games with such a bunch of classy birds as the Elks. Martinez wants to beat Richmond just as bad as Richmond wants to beat Petaluma.

* * *

Bill Luce is one of those who predicts a good season for "Butch" Woodbury.

THE "WAR OF WARS" AT RICHMOND

"The War of Wars," the first great picture of the French and German struggle in Northern France to be shown on the Pacific Coast, is the headliner at the Richmond theater today.

These pictures were taken at considerable risk to the picture machine operators and are intensely interesting. The havoc wrought by the war in Belgium and France is vividly shown.

In addition to this immense attraction, "His Talented Wife" will be the comedy offering for today and tomorrow. It's from the Keystone studio and is another of their popular laugh makers. A modern story of crime detection is shown in "The Sower Reaps."

A big attraction is scheduled for Friday and Saturday.

LUCE NO LONGER TREASURER OF LEAGUE

STOCKTON, March 23.—The directors of the California State League, in session here, have admitted Berkeley into the league in place of Vallejo, as that city could not furnish grounds. Mike Steffani was elected treasurer, in place of William Luce of Richmond, who resigned.

It was decided to open the season about April 11 and continue until October 1.

Each manager will be required to put up a bond to guarantee his team's continuance in the league during the entire season.

Saving Banks pay you interest on your savings, American Stamps is interest on what you spend. Which counts faster, what you save or what you spend?

It is probable that one of the St. Mary's College brothers will take a trip out here some time this week to talk the baseball situation over with Luce, with a view toward re-establishing the friendly relations that existed between the Elks and the Collegians prior to the time the St. Mary's refused to live up to its schedule.

MEIKLE TO PITCH FOR LOCALS SUNDAY

"Wiz" Meikle, one of the best pitchers on the coast, will start for the Elks against the Olympic team Sunday. This announcement was made yesterday by Manager Bill Luce. Luce has been angling for Meikle for several days, and although the former big league star is a much sought after ball player, he succeeded in landing him for the game. The game that Meikle will pitch for the Elks will be the last time he will appear around the bay for several months. Early next month he will report to the Aberdeen club in the Northwest League. Meikle is well known to the fans of Richmond, having made his appearance here several times. He has a lot of smoke, a good head and some sweet curves.

Charles Burns, star Elk flinger, reports that his arm is sore, and that he wants a rest of a couple of weeks, in order that he can get it back into shape.

Gordon will be held in reserve. It is thought that the injury he suffered to his foot in the game last Sunday will have healed to such an extent that he will be able to take his turn on the mound if he is needed.
